

The Real Map of Ireland Lesson Plans

Worksheet 7:

The Real Map of Ireland - Learning about the sea and its terrain True or False Questions?

Discuss with your class facts about the Real Map of Ireland and the sea and then see if you can answer the following statements identifying whether they are “True” or “False”.

1. Ireland has a 220 million acre marine territory _____
2. The seabed terrain is flat _____
3. Fish only live in the areas where there is light _____
4. The bottom of the ocean is intensely cold _____
5. The Gulf Stream affects the temperature on land _____
6. The bottom of the ocean has no life _____
7. The seabed is divided up into three areas _____
8. There are no volcanoes at sea _____
9. Oceans do not move _____
10. Oceanic ridges can form islands _____
11. The Continental Slope is cut up by canyons _____
12. The Mariana trench is in the Pacific _____
13. The mid- ocean Ridge is the shortest mountain range on earth _____
14. 97% of the earth's water is saltwater _____
15. The largest animal on earth is an elephant _____
16. The swordfish and the marlin are the slowest fish in the ocean _____
17. The Porcupine Bank can be found on the Real Map of Ireland _____
18. The Abyss has lots of hills and trees _____
19. Feni Ridge is named after the ancient Irish people (féne) _____
20. The Real Map of Ireland extends out across the Atlantic Ocean and includes parts of the Irish and Celtic Sea _____

